1. What is a Financial Services Guide?

This Financial Services Guide ('FSG') helps you understand and decide if you wish to use the financial services we are able to offer you. It is a document that we are required by law to provide to inform you of basic matters prior to providing you with financial advice.

It provides you with information about David J Gibney Pty Ltd (David Joseph Gibney us, our, we) and the services we provide. It tells you:

- who we are, the details of the AFSL and how we can be contacted
- what services and products we are authorised to provide to you
- how we (and any other relevant parties) are paid
- details of any potential conflicts of interest
- important information of the features, benefits and risks to assist you in making an informed decision about whether to buy the product or not, and
- how we deal with complaints.

We may provide you with personal advice that takes into account your needs, financial situation and circumstances. Where we provide you with personal advice we will provide you with a Statement of Advice ('SOA'). The SOA outlines our advice and the basis on which the advice was given. It also outlines relevant information about us, our fees, interests and associations which may have influenced the provision of the advice as well as charges associated with our advice.

If we provide further personal advice, you may request a record of the further advice that is provided to you, if you haven't already been provided with it. You can also contact us, using the details at the start of this FSG, within 7 years from when the advice is provided to request this record.

Occasionally we provide general advice. If we provide you with general advice, it may not be appropriate to your needs, financial situation or objectives, and you should consider your circumstances before choosing to proceed with our advice. Additionally, you should obtain and read the applicable Product Disclosure Statement ('PDS') (if one is available) before making a decision.

If we help you establish a self-managed superannuation fund ('SMSF'), we may provide you with a PDS. The PDS contains information about the product to assist you in making an informed decision about the SMSF. It will outline relevant terms, significant risks, and fees and charges associated with the product.

We have arrangements in place to maintain professional indemnity insurance. This insurance satisfies the requirements under section 912B of the Corporations Act 2001.

Please retain this FSG for your reference and any future dealings with us. We may also add documents at a later date which will also form part of this FSG, and these should be read together with the FSG. These documents will include the word 'FSG' in the heading. From time to time we will update this Financial Services Guide. An updated guide is always available on our website but we will endeavour to provide you with an updated version upon the provision of a new Statement of Advice (SOA). This may be an electronic copy attached to an email sent to you so please read all the attachments in emails carefully. At any stage, you can request a Financial Services Guide by fax, phone, email or mail. This is an important document. Please read it and keep it in a safe place.

3. What services and products are we authorised to provide to you?

There are two types of advice service we provide and it is important to understand the difference:

Personal Advice – this is advice provided by us to you on the suitability of general insurance policies or other financial products to meet your particular need. We will agree with you when this services is to be provided and what the scope of our personal advice will be. For example, in some cases we may only provide personal advice on which of a selected list of products is appropriate for you. Before we provide any personal advice, we will need to undertake a needs analysis so we can provide you with appropriate advice.

General Advice – this is where we provide a general recommendation or opinion to you on a general insurance policy or a financial product which is not based on our consideration of your personal needs. We tell you when this is the case because if general advice is given, you need to consider if the general advice and any relevant product is right for your circumstances as we have not done this for you.

In some cases where we arrange more than one policy for you, we may provide personal advice for one policy and general advice for another. We will tell you when this is the case. We are authorised to provide personal advice to both retail and wholesale clients in relation to SMSFs and superannuation products (in relation to your existing superannuation holdings where we recommend you establish a SMSF or where we provide you advice about contributions or pensions under a superannuation product). We can also arrange to deal in SMSFs. Please refer to ASIC's INFO 206 sheet for further information.

We are also authorised to provide 'class of product advice' on superannuation, securities, simple managed investment schemes, general insurance, life risk insurance, and basic deposit products. Class of product advice means that we can recommend broad classes of products to you, but we cannot recommend specific, named products within the class.

The services that we are authorised to offer include:-

- Self Managed Superannuation Funds (SMSFs)
- Investment and wealth creation advice
- Retirement planning
- Risk assessment and management
- Financial planning following redundancy
- Estate planning and business succession planning
- Asset protection advice
- Superannuation advice on contributions and withdrawal (pension) strategies but not fund selection.
- Salary packaging and tax planning.
- General (but not product advice on) Life, Trauma, total and permanent disability, income protection and business expenses insurance.

In providing our services, other financial matters may arise, such as which specific products to invest in, within your superannuation fund. However, we are not authorised to provide advice relating to those financial issues, or any other issues except those explained above.

4. What fees and commissions are payable to David J Gibney Pty Ltd?

We receive fees for providing you with our services. All fees described in this FSG include GST. Our hourly rate is currently $330 per hour. The cost of the advice will be proportional to the skill and knowledge required for the type of work, the degree of responsibility applicable to the work and the time required to prepare your Statement of Advice. David J Gibney Pty Ltd does not charge asset fees nor receive commissions. We charge a fee for service or a contractually agreed fixed price signed off with a Letter of Engagement.

The better organized that you are and the more efficiently answers to queries are provided then the more cost effective the advice will be. If we have to repeatedly ask you for the same details or you only partially answer questions and we have to seek the answers to those questions multiple times, then the cost will increase.

We do not accept any "soft dollar" or non-monetary payments or services from the people who we source our products from.
